

Continued from page 1...

I am rapidly discovering that my little red car is quickly being converted into a mobile home, and the long drives are starting to go by a lot quicker than they used to. I am so thankful for anyone who has helped along the way, because I could not have done it alone. I am having so many great experiences and I could not ask for more!

Kristen Schott

MRN 2008

